Donalee & Friends at Washburn Cultural Center

Bayfield, Wisconsin, June 2008. As Donalee Kennedy of DONALEE DESIGNS celebrates 20 years of jewelry making, the main event is a month long show; Donalee & Friends at the Washburn Culture Center June 2 - 29. To honor the anniversary and those friends who have joined her along the way the galleries at WCC will be brimming with current pieces and archival items. Artists joining Donalee, presenting their works are; Poca Adams, Natasha Cvek, Mary Gardner, Robin Shilman, Halley Lund, and her stone cutting husband Ardy Kennedy.

The reception; June 5th 5:00-8:00 pm at the Washburn Cultural Center will have all the artists in one place at same time. The Encore Chamber Ensembles will be performing; there will be refreshments from Lotta's Lakeside Café and Burt & Francie's.

DONALEE DESIGNS is committed to donating her shop scrap of silver and gold from this season to CORE. They encourage you to join them in that gift to CORE; Community Resources, by bringing your old unwanted gold, silver or other precious metal jewelry to the shop or the reception and they will give you an idea of its value for tax purposes. DONALEE DESIGNS will have it refined (melted down) and give the proceeds to CORE, the non- profit organization dedicated to bringing together communities and families to meet the challenging needs of our Seniors. CORE's programs include volunteer non-medical home services, social and educational programming, a thrift store and a food pantry.
